Complete this form to start, stop or change your contributions into your spouse's existing Telstra Super Personal Plus account that are deducted directly from your salary. By making a post-tax contribution to your spouse's account you may be eligible for a Spouse tax offset.

Your spouse can set up an account, if they do not already have one, after reading the Telstra Super Personal Plus Product Disclosure Statement and then completing an application form. The form and product disclosure statement are both available on our website at www.telstrasuper.com.au or by phoning 1300 033 166.

If you have difficulty completing this form please contact HR Pay Support.

- If you wish to contribute to your spouse's account, complete your details, your spouse's details and Sections A and B.
- If you wish to cease contributions to your spouse's account, complete your details, your spouse's details and Section C.

A Start making contributions to your spouse's Telstra Super Personal Plus account

I wish to start making contributions to my spouse's Telstra Super Personal Plus account by payroll deduction. I wish to contribute $_____ .00* (post-tax) into my spouse's Telstra Super Personal Plus account every pay period ongoing until I revoke the deduction. Contributions will commence from the next available pay period after the form is received by payroll.

B Member declaration

I certify that my spouse[†] is under 65 or is 65-69 and gainfully employed for at least 40 hours in a period of not more than 30 consecutive days in the current financial year, and is my spouse and we continue to live on a genuine domestic basis in a relationship as a couple.

I am aware that if Telstra Super does not have my spouse's Tax File Number, they cannot accept any post-tax contributions made on my spouse's behalf.

I am aware that if I make future contributions into the Telstra Super Personal Plus account, my spouse and I must continue to meet the eligibility conditions above and I agree to advise Telstra Super immediately if our eligibility changes.

I acknowledge that generally my contribution will be applied to my spouse's Telstra Super Personal Plus account as at the date Telstra Super Pty Ltd receives the contribution and that this contribution will be preserved[‡].
