

Proof of Identity Guide

This guide sets out the proof of identity documents that can be accepted and how to get your proof of identity documents certified.

How to use this guide

You are required by law to provide information to us about your identity in certain circumstances, including before withdrawing your benefit, rolling over your benefit to a Self Managed Superannuation Fund (SMSF), opening a TelstraSuper RetireAccess account or receiving a death benefit.

If you're of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander heritage and are unable to meet the current TelstraSuper proof of identity requirements, you may provide alternative supporting documentation including the Indigenous persons identity referral form available at telstrasuper.com.au/forms or by calling us on 1300 033 166 to have one sent to you.

1. How to get your proof of identity documents certified

Step 1: Organise and photocopy your proof of identity documents

- Gather your acceptable proof of identity documents from the list in section 2. Ensure they are current and have not expired.
- Make photocopies of your documents. If you're using your driver's licence you will need to photocopy both sides.
- If the document is not written in English it must be accompanied by an English translation prepared by an accredited translator.

Step 2: Get your proof of identity documents certified

- Take your photocopies and the original documents to a person authorised to certify proof of identity documents, see section 3 over page.
- The authorised person must:
 - sight the original and the copy
 - confirm that the documents are identical
 - write or stamp on the photocopy:
 - I certify that this is a true and correct copy of the original document I have sighted', and
 - their name, qualification, business address, and registration number (if applicable), and
 - their signature and date on all pages of the photocopy.

Example:

I certify that this is a true and correct copy of the original document I have sighted.

Step 3: Send your certified proof of identity documents to us with your completed forms

- Do not send your original proof of identity documents
- We are unable to accept proof of identity documents that were certified more than 12 months before the date they were submitted.

2. Proof of identity documents

You must provide a certified copy of one acceptable photographic ID document OR two non-photographic ID documents.

Acceptable photographic ID (one document required)

Certified copy of one of the following:

- current Australian driver's licence or permit that contains your photograph
- current passport
- current Proof of Age card containing your photograph
- national identity card containing your photograph and signature.

OR Acceptable non-photographic ID (two documents required)

Certified copy of one of the following:

- Medicare card
- birth certificate
- a citizenship certificate issued by the Commonwealth or a foreign government
- low income health care card or Commonwealth seniors health card or Pensioner Concession Card

AND

Certified copy of one of the following documents containing your name and residential address:

- a council rates notice (less than 3 months old)
- a notice of assessment from the Australian Taxation Office (less than 12 months old)
- gas, water or electricity bill (less than 3 months old)
- if you're under 18, a notice issued by your school principal (less than 3 months old) that records the period of time of school attendance.

3. Who can certify your proof of identity documents?

1. A person who is currently licensed or registered under a law of a State or Territory to practise in one of the following occupations:
