6. Proof of Identity

Proof of your identity and the identity of any attorney, administrator or guardian who signs this form on your behalf must be supplied every time a change of details request is made. This can be done in one of two ways:

Option 1 – Electronic ID verification

By providing details of any TWO of the following identity documents – your Medicare card, pension card, Australian drivers licence, Australian passport – you agree to TelstraSuper using this information to verify your identity electronically using independent data sources.

By ticking this box:

- a) I confirm that I am authorised to provide these identification documents to TelstraSuper
- b) I acknowledge that my personal information will be sent to TelstraSuper's external identity verification provider to verify my identity with the identity records they hold for the purposes of this change of details request, and consent to that being done.

Important: Make sure the details you provide are accurate. If the personal details you provide in section 1 do not match the electronic identification details you provide below, we will not be able to use these details to prove your identity. This will delay processing your request as we may require you to provide us with certified proof of identity documents.

 - (v) governor of a central bank or any other position that has comparable influence to the Governor of the Reserve Bank of Australia
 - (vi) senior foreign representative, ambassador, or high commissioner
 - (vii) high-ranking member of the armed forces
 - (viii) Board chair, chief executive, or chief financial officer of, or any other position that has comparable influence in, any State enterprise or international organisation, or
- (b) who is an immediate family member of a person referred to in paragraph (a), including:
 - (i) a spouse
 - (ii) a de facto partner
 - (iii) a child, a child's spouse or de facto partner
 - (iv) a parent
- (c) who is a close associate of a person referred to in paragraph (a), which means any individual who is known (having regard to information that is public or readily available) to have:
 - (i) joint beneficial ownership² of a legal entity or legal arrangement with a person referred to in paragraph (a)
 - (ii) sole beneficial ownership² of a legal entity or legal arrangement that is known to exist for the benefit of a person referred to in paragraph (a).

1. International organisation essentially means an organisation established by a formal political agreement by two or more countries which has the status of an international treaty.

2. Beneficial ownership means directly or indirectly owning 25% or more of an entity or exercising operational or financial control over an entity.

Proof of Identity Guide

Your application cannot be processed until acceptable proof of identity documents have been provided to us as required by law when submitting a Change of details form.

Proof of your identity and the identity of any attorney, administrator or guardian who signs this form on your behalf must be supplied every time a change of details request is made. This can be done in one of two ways:

1. Electronic ID verification

Supply details of any TWO of the following identity documents: Medicare card, pension card, Australian drivers licence or Australian passport, and you consent for TelstraSuper to verify your identity electronically using independent data sources.

OR

2. Certified proof of identity documents

Supply a certified copy of one acceptable photographic ID document or two non-photographic ID documents.

Acceptable photographic ID (one document required)

Certified copy of one of the following documents:

- current Australian driver's licence or permit that contains your photograph
- current passport
- current Proof of Age card containing your photograph
- national identity card containing your photograph and signature.

Acceptable non-photographic ID (two documents required)

Certified copy of one of the following documents:

How to get your proof of identity documents certified

- Photocopy your identity documents (if you're using your driver's licence, photocopy both sides)
- Take the photocopies and the original documents to a person authorised to certify proof of identity documents:
 - If living in Australia: This includes pharmacists, police officers or a Justice of the Peace.
 - If living overseas: This must be a person who is an Australian Consular Officer or a foreign notary public.

For a complete list of people authorised to certify proof of identity documents in Australia and overseas visit telstrasuper.com.au/proofofid

To certify your documents, the authorised person must:

- sight the original and the copy
- confirm that the documents are identical
- write or stamp on the photocopy:
 - 'I certify that this is a true and correct copy of the original document I have sighted', and
 - their name, qualification, business address, and registration number (if applicable), and
 - their signature and date on all pages of the photocopy.

Example

I certify that this is a true and correct copy of the original document I have sighted.
